Dana was born in Germany and moved to Switzerland, where she has lived and worked since 1982.

Her paintings bring together a sense of intrigue and exploration, telling a story that invites the viewer the freedom to draw upon their interpretation. Like a permanent changing map – she looks for new trails of colour, desire and twisted paths of noise and fun.

With over 20 years of experience in the exhibiting world, Dana has been highly successful, resulting in artworks held in private collections in Germany, Italy and Switzerland.

“I draw lines, fill areas with colour, let wisps dance and ships sail. Silent, clueless, loud ... and I am in the midst” - DG.
